Proceeds:

This event will raise funds to assist women in receiving mammography services in our community. Targeting women who are underinsured or without health insurance, we have learned that a growing number of women do not qualify for those early detection services through other assistance programs.

Women's Task Force Partners with Community Services of SJRMC

The Women's Cancer Task Force has been working closely with the Saint Joseph Health Center, the Healthy Families Center, the SJRMC Family Practice Residency Program, the Edison Lakes Women's Health & Resource Center, and The Center for Women's Health, Saint Joseph Regional Medical Center, and To Your Health at University Park Mall. Representatives of these programs have been serving on the steering committee of the Task Force as we plan for our September event and will be instrumental in accessing clients who can benefit from the mammography services. We are most grateful to Carla Bice, Norma Napoli, Peggy Heibel, Becky Gudorf, Julie Moore, Patty Marquardt and Michael Bovee for their dedication to the underserved in our community. They truly reflect the commitment of Saint Joseph Regional Medical Center to the mission of service. We are most grateful for their support of the task force.

Join the "Secret Sisters Society"

The Secret Sisters Society is a special opportunity to sponsor a woman and perhaps save a life. The secret Sisters fund will allow women in need, who don't qualify for existing programs, due to age, income or other guidelines, to receive mammograms. These are women who may be working but don't have access to health insurance...newly divorced women or widowed women without insurance for the first time or women who simply can't afford the insurance coverage available to them. These women are at great risk, because early detection is the key to survival. By donating $50 to help underserved women get mammograms; participants can become a Secret Sister and receive special benefits.

Membership Benefits

TASK FORCE COMMERCIALS

The commercials regarding early signs of Ovarian Cancer continue to run on local stations and cable, now as Public Service Announcements (PSA's). As we look toward September (Gynecological cancer month) and October (Breast Cancer awareness) the Women's Task Force with Dr. Method's direction has been working to develop a new video, which would target misinformation relating to women and cancer. In the planning stages with Lou Pierce of Big Ideas Company, many of the ideas and content of this video are based on concerns women on the task force have expressed concerning the "myths" and "misconceptions" which keep women from early detection. If we believe in the goal as expressed by Dr. Method in our April/May Newsletter, "to reduce the cancer burden in our community", then "empowering women through knowledge" is essential.

To this end, we need your ideas on commonly held misconceptions that you personally experienced or that you have heard expressed by friends. Perhaps it was something that kept you from an earlier detection of cancer. Lou & Dr. Method are asking for our ideas. You may fax them to me at 237-7999 or call the task force office. You may also bring them to our September 4th meeting. If not incorporated in the video, they will be used on our expanded website www.womenstaskforce.org.

GYNA-GIRLS OVARIAN CANCER SUPPORT

The Gyna-Girls are working on an initiative for gynecological cancer month. September 6 & 7th the Notre Dame Women's Rowing Team will join both Gyna Girls and the Life Goes On support group in distributing information on Ovarian Cancer and early detection. This is a N.D. home football game and the groups will be working from a location at the Eck Center Visitors Center (next to the Bookstore) on the Notre Dame Campus.

They will be distributing ovarian cancer information, "teal" pins, and N.D. cookbooks donated by the Alumni Association. In addition, the women's team will have a shell and a simulator to draw visitors over to the informational tables.

The N.D. Women's team has a special interest in this cause, since one of their former coaches passed away after a courageous battle with ovarian cancer.

The Gyna-Girls have also put the finishing touches on their packets for newly diagnosed patients. Becky Morris has been working hard on this project and has enjoyed the cooperation of Dr. Method's office staff in this endeavor.

Nancy White will be meeting with Mary Jo Halbritter to have more aprons in additional colors ready to be sold at the Secret Sisters Society Luncheon in September.

What Cancer Cannot Do

*Cancer is so limited...
It cannot cripple Love
It cannot shatter Hope
It cannot corrode Faith
It cannot destroy Peace
It cannot kill Friendship
It cannot suppress Memories
It cannot silence Courage
It cannot invade the Soul
It cannot steal eternal Life
It cannot conquer the Spirit.*
